Moscow, March 21.

AN Express arrived this Morning from Constantinople with the Confirmation of the good News, that the Porte has at last consented that all the Conquests the Czar has made on the Caspian Sea shall remain in his Imperial Majesty's Possession; that the young Sophy shall be established upon the Persian Throne, according to the Treaty of Alliance his Czarish Majesty has concluded with him, and the Usurper Miriweys be driven out of the Persian Dominions; to effect which, it will be necessary to act against him with the utmost Vigour; the rather since the said Usurper, under the Colour of Religion, pretending to be sent by Mahomet to reform the Abuses crept in, and to restore it to its primitive Purity, has gained the Hearts of the People in such a Manner, that even the Bashaw of Babylon, when he marched against him, was obliged to turn back again, because he perceived most of the Forces under his Command were ready to go over and to follow the new Prophet.

Petersbourg, March 21. We hear from Olonitz, that his Czarish Majesty, after having drank the Waters there with good Success, set out the 26th Instant for Moscow, where the Coronation is fixed to the 26th of April; the Preparations for the same are so great and uncommon, that they could not be finished before that Time. The Duke of Holstein's Court has been considerably increased, which makes us more and more believe that his Marriage with the eldest Russian Princess will be consummated soon after the Coronation. The Merchants and the Directors of the Company of Archangel are gone to Moscow, in order to settle their Trade there, as they have done here, which they will do more effectually whilst his Imperial Majesty is in that City.

Stockholm, April 5. Four Days ago another Minister from the Czar arrived here from Petersbourg, but it is not yet known what he has in Commission. The Conferences about the Limits in Finland are continued, and we are told that they are for the most Part adjusted.

Copenhagen, April 4. On Saturday last his Majesty was present at the launching of three new-built Gallies, which have been named Moen, Langeland and Bornholm, and went afterwards with the Queen and the Princess Charlotta to Fridericksbourg, to stay there for some Time, his Majesty being resolved not to make a farther Progress, but to be near his Residence till the Princess Royal is brought to Bed. Sig. Maldini, whom the King has made his Councillor for Trade, on Account of his Ingenuity, will in a few Days shew his Majesty a Specimen of his Projects, by which we shall be able to judge of his Ability. The Commissioners which have been so long examining the Affair of Lieutenant-General Gerdsdorf, who commanded the King's Troops in the last War in Hungary, have at length brought it to a final Determination; by which the said Lieutenant-General is to pay the King the Sum of 25000 Imperial Florins by the 11th of June.

London, April 17.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from France.

Paris, April 22. The Duke of Bourbon, who went the 13th Instant to Chantilly, came back again last Monday to Versailles, where the other Ministers repaired likewise the same Day. The Ordinances issued by the Intendants of the Provinces, in Pursuance of the Comptroller General's Circular Letters, have beat down considerably the Price of all sorts of Provisions and Merchandizes, the Manufacturers of Cass and its District having lessened theirs near a third Part. The Society which had made Proposals for establishing here a Lombard, have now obtained a Patent from the Duke of Lorraine to set up one in his Dominions. They have begun to clear the Gardens of the Hotel Mazarin, where Barracks are to be set up for the Convenience of the Paper Trade. These Preparations, and the Arrival of the Ships formerly mentioned, have made the Stocks fall from 1900 to 1650 Livres, which Fall is also attributed to the lessening of the Loans upon the Stocks; and 'tis thought, that in case the Company will lend no longer any Money upon them, they will fall to 1400 Livres, and even lower. M. Ment, mentioned in our former Letters, was brought by an Officer of the Parliament under a Guard of 25 Men to the Castle of Vincennes: Commissioners are already appointed to try him, some say they will be Members of Parliament, but others think they will be of the Council of State; he that as it will, 'tis generally believed that his Case is very bad, as well as some other State Prisoners. Upon the Prohibition against planting Tobacco in this Kingdom, some Commonalties in the Principality of Tourenne, who partly subsisted by it, began to get together; but 20 Companies of Foot have been sent thither to keep them in Awe, and to prevent their unlawful Meetings. 'Tis said the King has nominated the Cardinal de Polignac to be Coadjutor to the Cardinal de Noailles. M. Boivin, one of the King's Library Keepers, died suddenly on the 20th Instant. The Marchioness de Crequy has made by Will the Duke d'Aumont her Nephew her universal Heir, and has bequeathed 200000 Livres to the Marchioness of Beringhen, and 30000 Livres to each of her three Nieces, Daughters to Madame Beringhen: She has also left 30000 Livres to the Parish of St. Sulpice. We hear by an Express arrived from Spain, that his Catholick Majesty has named the Duke of Orleans and the Duke of Bourbon Knights of the Order of the Golden Fleece.

Whereas the killing and selling of Hogs-Flesh is become more frequent than formerly, and especially in the hottest Seasons of the Year; which Flesh so selling tends very much to the Prejudice of His Majesty's Subjects, by creating many dangerous Diseases; the Cause of such Diseases cannot easily be discovered. For Prevention of which, it hath been ordered in the By-Laws of the Company of Butchers, That no Person or Persons shall at any time kill Hogs, or put to Sale, utter, or vend, any of that Flesh, from the 1st of May to the 31st of October, under a certain Penalty therein contained; therefore this is published to prevent such evil Practices for the future.
